

Saving Lives Through Below 100

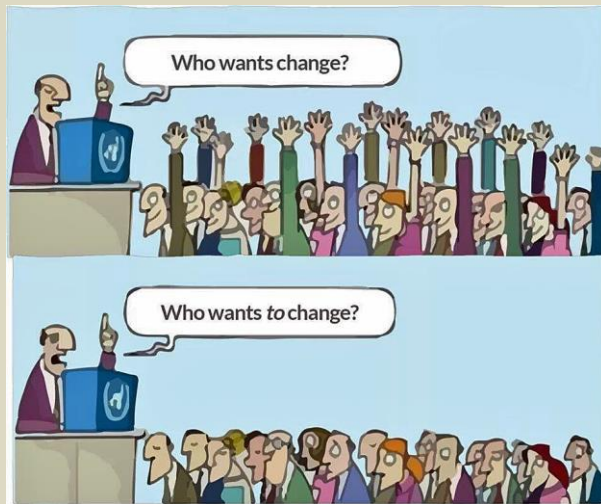

1

Integration to Training

- FTO Program
- EVOC Program
- Essential Skills Training
- Supervisor Training
- Below 100 Roll Call Training
- Near Miss Roll Call Training
- Below 100 Spouses Training
- Dispatch Center Supervisors

2

Changing Agency Culture

3

Changing Agency Culture

- Pursuit Policy
 - Decrease pursuits through training and education
 - Increase direct supervision
 - Better define need for a pursuit
- Driving Review Board
 - Consistency in findings
 - Identify training needs
 - Identify trends
 - Education and support opportunity

4

THINK OUTSIDE
THE BOX

5

Changing Agency Culture

- Telematics—A Powerful Tool
 - Speed and seat belt
 - Overall vehicle operation
 - Airbag deployment
 - Emergency locate
 - Vehicle malfunction
 - Drivers' scoring
 - Operational advantages
 - Significant fleet savings

6

Changing Agency Culture

- Promotional Testing
- Expenditures
- Mission and Goals
- Upgraded Armor
- Upgraded Lighting Systems
- Visual
 - Posters
 - Stickers
 - Computer screen
 - Data updates

7

“It’s not the will to win that matters. It’s the will to prepare to win that truly matters”

—Vince Lombardi

8

Overview

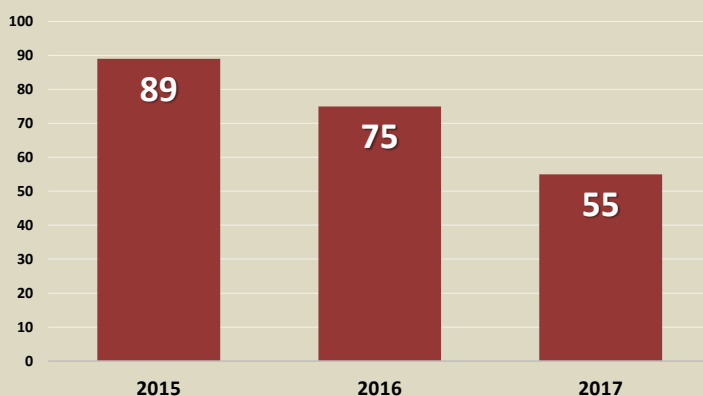

- We drive over 300,000 miles per month
- Fully Commissioned Deputies = 300
- Personnel = 800
- During 2016:
 - Average speed of accidents went down 50%–70%
 - The number of pursuits went down ~30%
 - Zero significant injuries (11 in 2015)

Are we SAVING lives?

9

Three-Year Collision Trend

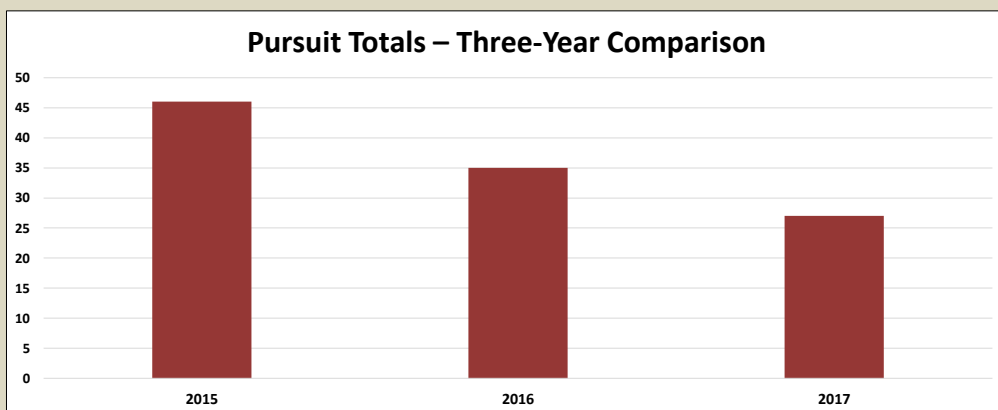

10

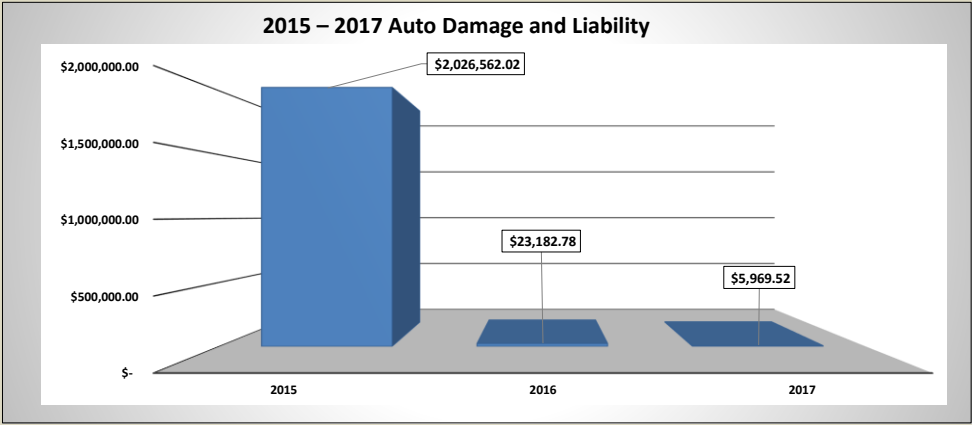

Non-Preventable vs. Preventable

Pursuits Decrease Trend

Saving Money??

What's your role?